“Let Your Clothes Speak for You”
Fashion Show
June 14, 2007
7:30pm

Tickets are $15.00 per person.

Rachel D.K. Clark, a noted pattern and garment designer, will be the MC for the fashion show “Let Your Clothes Speak for You” which will include many garments of her own design including coats, vests, and ensembles. Her commentary is witty, anecdotal and often poignant.

Many MQ members and friends will also show off their own creations by modeling them in the fashion show. 1st, 2nd and 3rd place viewers’ choice awards will be awarded based on balloting by the audience members.

There will be plenty of seating for all. Door prizes, including a sewing machine, will be given away.

The fashion show is an event we look forward to. We’d love to have you enter one of your clothing creations. The information and registration form for entering a garment is on the following page of this book.

GRAND BANQUET
Friday, June 15, 2007
6:30pm—10pm
St. Paul RiverCentre Ballroom

Tickets are $42.00 per person

Here’s what you’ve been waiting for! You will join with your old and new friends along with the Faculty and Show Sponsors to honor the Minnesota Quilter of the Year, Sharon Hultgren.

Topping off the evening you will be thoroughly entertained by quilter, author and musician Ricky Tims.

We’ll announce the award winners, and your admission will give you a chance to win a sewing machine.

Buffet dinner selection includes: several delicious salads, side dishes, entrées of Chicken Piccata, Walleye Pike with Sage Brown Butter, Pappardelle (vegetarian) Pasta and Pastry Chef’s Dessert Selections.

NOTE: Table reservations for the Banquet may be made at the Information Booth during the show. Any tables not reserved by noon on Friday, June 15, will be available for open seating.
