The January 13, daytime meeting of the Minnesota Quilters will be held at Peace Presbyterian Church, 7624 South Cedar Lake Road, St. Louis Park (across the street from Margaret Naik's house).

The ladies of Peace Church will be serving a luncheon for our convenience. The menu will be a hot dish, salad, dessert, and drink for $4.50. You won't want to miss this special opportunity to stay and visit with other quilters. Send your luncheon reservation to Carolyn Sibbett, 11845 26th Ave. N., Plymouth, Mn. 55441, by January 3, 1984. Please make your check payable to Peace Presbyterian Church.

Our program will feature our own Kathy Morton who will warm our cold January hearts with slides and stories of Hawaiian quilting. Kathy did a similar program a couple of years ago, and it stands out in my mind as one of my all time favorite MQ programs. You won't want to miss it!

Meeting will start promptly at 10 a.m. with Show and Tell.

The January 12 evening meeting of the Minnesota Quilters will be held at the Richfield Community Center, 70th and Nicollet South in Minneapolis, at 7 p.m.

Please bring your basic sewing supplies, some energy, and a little left over good will - we'll be working together to make the favors for the Spring Quilt Show.

The meeting will be lead by Inez Crimmins, and she requests that you bring 4" scraps of calico and plain fabric. If you have time, you can cut the pieces from the pattern on this page.

The evening division planning committee will meet at Mo-Johnson's on Tuesday, January 24th and 7 p.m.

From the President

Dear Mother,

My warmest wishes for a Happy and Fulfilling New Year to you and to each and every Minnesota Quilter! Right now, the smell of evergreen for decorating - the aromas of favorite Christmas cookies - the bustle of finishing presents - and the anxiety of the family coming for the holiday.....fill my heart with joy and gratitude.

Looking forward to the new year with challenging quilting events is also a good feeling. The special events committee has announced the nationally accredited quilters who will be here for our 1984 Annual Quilt Show in March.... interesting artists to share their talents with us. The Fall Get-A-Way is already scheduled for next October.

It is my pleasure to announce that Sandy Lennes of Hutchinson as accepted the position of Minnesota Quilters News Editor....we welcome her to the board and know each of you will be looking forward to knowing her. Sandy was on the staff of her high school and college papers and was involved with a community education newspaper. In recent years, she has been associated with the Hickory Lane (fabric and quilting center) in Hutchinson and has been responsible for the publication Sew What's New, published by the shop. In welcoming Sandy, we want to again say 'Thank You', to Nancy Schell for her time and devotion to MQ this past year.

Happy New Year, everyone!
Mary Jones
NATURALLY, MINNESOTA Quilt Show will be March 24-27 at St. Thomas College in St. Paul, complete with quilt display, small quilt silent auction, vendor area, member consignment booth, demonstrations, and banquet. New this year will be an antique and antique display with Joyce Aufderheide, and visiting with visitors on Sunday afternoon.

We will have lectures Saturday, Sunday and Monday afternoons in the auditorium. Many more classes, including both 3 hour and 6 hour ones.

Many members will be teaching along with Judy Matheson - California, Judi Warren - Ohio, and Leslie Claire Greenberg - Virginia.

Registration forms will be mailed Jan.1 to members. Enclosed in this edition of the newsletter are two sheets of notices, etc. for you to keep with your other show information. Remember if your name label is hi-lighted with blue, your membership is expiring and you must send your dues to be eligible to register early.

SMALL QUILT AUCTION

The Minnesota Quilters' Annual Quilt show will again feature a small quilt auction. It's not too early to get started on your donation quilt - let your imagination soar and your fingers fly. Quilts may be executed in any technique and of a size from miniature up to 24" x 36". Proceeds from previous auctions have been used for service projects and the M.Q. library.

The March daytime and evening meetings are the deadline for turning in your small quilts. Please refer any questions to Cathie LaRosa, 483-3751

DAYTIME DECEMBER MEETING

Our traditional Christmas meeting was lovely. Our thanks to Janet Duesbner who narrated the style show and to all the models who shared their creations. Our thanks to Pat Cox who provided seasonal piano artistry as background for our show and to Helen Kelley who is a marvelous Santa. Thanks too, to Pat Wiswell, Joanne Holzknecht and all the quilters in their group for arranging the meeting and providing those lovely centerpieces and the door prize. And thanks to all of you who shared your tasty goodies at our pot luck lunch!

FROM YOUR EDITOR... Darlene Myers

Just a word to explain this abbreviated copy of your newsletter. As you know, Nancy Sobell retired as of your last issue, and our new editor, Sandy Lennes, begins her term of duty with the next issue. In a moment of weakness, I offered to do a very short newsletter in January with just the bare essentials included...no pictures...no features. I'm also doing this on Dec. 26, so you are receiving it later than usual. Hopefully, I've included all the most important news, and we'll be back to normal next month.
MINNESOTA QUILTERS PRESENT MID-WINTER WORKSHOPS ****************************

Date: Saturday, January 28, 1984

Location: St. Philip the Deacon Lutheran Church 17205 Co. Rd. 6 Plymouth Mn. (3/4 block east of Hwy 101 and Cty. Rd. 6)

Workshop: A TEE FOR ALL SEASONS by Gloria Limnell

In this workshop the student will learn how to draft a perfect fitting pattern for a shirt or dress based on the tee shape. Although this easy to make garment is ideal for everyday wear, various techniques will be discussed and examples shown. Included in the workshop materials are a six page guide for the basic with or without hood shirt or dress and several pattern sheets for the Tee Variations, including assorted neckline facings. Materials fees to be collected in class.

Workshop: VISTA WESTMENTS by Lee Bradford

Everywhere you look there is a quilt! In a sunset, a forest or on a lake. Turn a lovely landscape scene into a smashing piece of wearable art. Using hand or machine applique, your favorite vest pattern will be turned into a wonderful "vistas" to wear and view!

Small Quilt Auction Information

This exciting Small Quilt Auction will again be a feature of our spring quilt show. Last year 70 small quilts, ranging in size from 24" x 36" to scale miniatures, were made and donated by members of Minnesota Quilters. Silent bidding took place during the show with winning bids posted at the end of the show. If you missed out last time, you'll have another chance this spring.

This year's auction promises to be even bigger and better. Proceeds support Minnesota Quilters lending library and service projects.

The deadline for donating small quilts will be the March daytime and evening meetings. We hope to have as many fine quilts as were donated last year.

Please call Cathie La Kosa if you have any questions pertaining to the auction. Thank you.
