Take up the Challenge

The Evening Division Quilters has issued a challenge to all Minnesota Quilters. It's not too late to participate!

The Challenge is a pattern challenge. A 16" block pattern is available to make anything you want to create as long as you use the block at least once and no more than four times. Borders, other blocks and embellishments may be added with the entire quilt not exceeding 60"x72". Cost of the pattern is $1.75. If you want a pattern and cannot attend the September meeting please call Helen Ziegler 473-6076 or Nancy Steidle at 937-1049 for more information.

The Challenge project should be completed by the November meeting when they will be displayed.
Lake Shetek Quilt Retreat

If a weekend of relaxation and quilting is appealing to you we would welcome you to join us at Lake Shetek on Oct. 27-29. One of the things we often hear when quilters visit is that sometimes it is hard to find time to be quiltmakers. What we would like to offer at Lake Shetek is a weekend of "quilting time." For those of you who would like to take classes we will have several day-long workshops. For those of you who would like a weekend of quite uninterrupted time to quilt on projects of your own, we will provide that opportunity.

Lake Shetek Bible Camp is located on Keely Island near Slayton, Minnesota. It is a lovely, peaceful place to spend a fall weekend.

For more information about the retreat you may contact Grace Meier, Route 1, Box 297, Fulda, MN 56131. (507) 425-2785. The retreat is sponsored by the Worthington and Fulda Quilt Clubs.
Wendy’s Wisdom
Words from the President

The title of this column must be a mistake—or I feel there should be a disclaimer at the end of the article! It has been 90° plus high humidity for too many days and I think my brain is fried. How about you? I also have to tell you that the title was not my idea and came as a complete surprise to me—as it probably did to you! But the heat hasn’t stopped me from quilting or looking ahead to future quilting activities. By the way, can you remember what life was like B.Q. (before quilting)? What did we do?

Wendy

MQ Collection Quilts

When MQ was started it was decided that each year a group quilt would be designed, pieced and quilted by the members. The finished quilt then becomes a part of the MQ permanent quilt collection. This activity helped to draw the members together and develop friendships. The quilts were to be displayed at annual quilt shows and entered in appropriate contests and shows. There are now nine completed quilts and two unquilted tops in the collection. The entire collection is housed by a member of MQ in her home. Ann Degen has had the collection in her home for many years. Linda Hillan will be the new curator of the collection.

There has been discussion of the practicality of continuing to make a new quilt each year. As the collection grows larger it becomes more and more difficult to find a suitable storage area. It has also been difficult to get the finished tops quilted by the members. It is not always possible, because of space limitations, to exhibit the collection at annual shows. MQ has been involved in many community service projects which provide an opportunity for group involvement for any member.

Before a decision is made we would like to hear from everyone with an opinion on the subject. Please let your thoughts on the collection quilt be known to me or any board member.

Jane Melohn, MQ Historian

Piece and Harmony
Minnesota Quilters
Annual Conference
College of St. Thomas
St. Paul, MN
June 14-16, 1990

Your show committee met on July 7th to view the facilities at St. Thomas and hold our first meeting. The hours of the 1990 show will be Thursday, June 14 from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.; Friday, June 15 from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.; and Saturday, June 16 from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Our National Teachers for the show are: Sandi Bard, Moneca Calvert, Jo Diggs, Caryl Bryer Fallert, Marsha McCloskey, Nancy Pearson, Yvonne Procella, Doreen Speckman, Sara Miller, Lecturer.

Your show committee has volunteered their time for the whole year. You can make the difference in whether this show is a success or not by volunteering at “sign-up” times or via personal calls. We need you!

Never Say Never, Again

Yes, I have volunteered again! This time I will be making the 1991 raffle quilt. It will be a scrap quilt done in blues. I am looking for several quarter (1/4) yard pieces of blue printed fabric. If you would like to donate to the cause please send your donation with your name and address to: Mary Tilley, 121 Sherwood Drive, Le Sueur, MN 56058. I'm a very slow worker so if you plan to donate a piece of fabric please do so by September 30, 1989. Thank you for your generosity.

Sincerely, Mary Tilley

Attention!

The 1990 quilt show “Piece and Harmony” committee will be accepting resumes for class instructors until September 30, 1989. If you are interested in teaching, send your complete resume to Sheila Lee, 10036 Colorado Circle, Bloomington, MN 55438.

Daytime Meeting
July 14, 1989, Machinist’s Hall

Dorothy Sauber spoke to the daytime meeting on pictorial hooked rugs. She showed slides of her beautiful rugs which are social commentaries on the times in which we live. She explained that there is a long tradition of women using rugs to express a political statement. Most rug hookers work along using an original colored drawing of their own making. They don’t have the same network of ideas to draw from that quilters have developed. Dorothy has produced a beautiful body of work that was a pleasure to learn about.

Stepping Through Time

It has been a very short year for me, but I am ready to let go. The 1989 quilt show is now a good memory for me and I hope for you as well.

I wish to thank the many volunteers who worked during the show. A special thank you to my committee members who worked very long hours and who without your hard work and understanding, my job would not have been so easy to perform. They are as follows: Dorothy Stish, Registration/Mailing; Jeanne Tanamachi, Asst. Registration/Mailing; David Shattuck, Exhibit/Special Display; Marjorie Herrington, Treasurer; Carreen Pierson, Teachers/Programs; Vickie Kennedy, Volunteers; Margaret Ballinger and Jackie Northrop, Small Quilt Auction; Rosemary Root, Jeannette Root and Teresa Root, Advertising/Publicity; Nancy Krenik and Sally Geary, Door Prizes; Janet Schuetze, Vendors; and Gail Sweeney, Bus Tours.

No matter what the reasons, it is very difficult to keep everyone happy and I’m sure this year was no exception. I have learned a lot chairing two shows—1987 and 1989. I sincerely hope I was not too hard on committee members! We received several good suggestions that have been recorded and passed on to future show committee organizers. I urge those of you who have suggestions to get involved...volunteer and you can change things (show) for the better. Our guild can only grow with your help.

Riders Needed

I am planning to attend the Minnesota Quilters Fall Get-A-Way, Sept. 29-Oct. 1, 1989. I have room in my car for two people and would be glad to have company to and from Little Falls. Otherwise I'll be driving there alone. I can be reached at home after 6 p.m. at 786-4357 or from 8:43:30 at work, 737-4225.

Thanks, Mary Koleelarczyk

Being a Minnesota Quilter is learning new skills. Sharlen Jorgensen taught a class at Mankato, and will be lecturing at the Fall Get-A-Way.

Beads

Glass, metal, wood and ceramic beads and findings. Call for a list of fall classes, including needlewoven necklaces, miniature Christmas trees and fiber embellishment.

Lavena Cota Now Certified Quilt Insurance Appraiser

In response to the needs of quilters and collectors for valid insurance appraisals, the American Quilter's Society has developed a program to certify appraisers who are qualified to evaluate quilts and quilted textiles employing traditional design elements, techniques and variations. Lavena Cota is among 15 people who are currently certified, from all areas of the country, and is entitled to use AQS Insurance Appraisal Forms and embossing seal. For information on having quilts appraised, she can be contacted at 4781-2½ St. N.E., Minneapolis, MN 55421, (612) 572-8878.

A committee of currently practicing appraisers has been working on developing the program for three years, under the direction of Administrator Jeannie M. Spears. They worked with a member of the insurance community to make sure that criteria and standards for appraisal would be accepted by claims adjusters in the event of loss. They were also concerned that dubious ethical practices not be allowed, and developed a written Code of Ethical Practices which each AQS Certified Appraiser has signed. A process has been set up to deal with ethical complaints.

One of the major purposes of the committee's work is to provide today's quilter with the opportunity to have current work appraised. Unless quilts have a written appraisal and are insured under a Fine Arts Floater, homeowner's policies normally cover only the cost of replacing the materials in the event of loss. This is also true of shipping companies.

Those who wish to learn to appraise may register for the Education Program by sending a $12 annual fee, which covers the cost of a quarterly mailing, to AQS Appraiser Certification Program, Box 3290, Paducah, KY 42002. Those who feel qualified to apply for certification may request application forms from the same address. Please enclose a LSASE. The deadline is July 15 of each year for evaluation the next April.

Help is Needed!

Local quilters are hoping to establish the Minnesota link, in the national network that is making crib quilts for babies with AIDS (maybe you read about it in a recent Quilter's Newsletter Magazine!).

If you can donate time, talent, material or money, or if you just want more information about it, contact Cathy Geier, Minnesota Area Coordinator, 2004 Knapp Ave., St. Paul, Minnesota 55108; phone 647-6950.

Ann Bird Featured at Lecture Series
October 12, 13, & 14, 1989

Ann Bird will be the featured teacher and lecturer for Minnesota Quilters' Fall Lecture Series. This well-known Canadian quilter has taught and exhibited extensively in both the United States and in Canada. Ann has just been named the recipient of the Dorothy McCurdie Award by the Canadian Quilting Association. This award is given annually to a quilter who has made a significant contribution to the craft of quilting in Canada.

Ann's work reflects strong central designs and medallions and Mandalas, and in her half-day workshop, "Patterned Stars", she will teach how to work with a wide range of fabrics and patterned textiles to make an exciting quilt design, unique to each individual. This class will be held Friday afternoon, October 13, 1989, 1-4 p.m. and the cost is $15.

The Saturday class, "Design in Black and White", will focus on design and composition using black, white, and gray fabrics to create some dramatic visual designs. Students will work both with fabrics and paper to design and explore the many possibilities of this color palette. This all-day class is October 14, 1989 and will start at 9 a.m. Workshop registration fee is $20.

Ann will also give two lectures. Thursday evening's will be "Contemporary Canadian Quilts," and on Friday morning she will speak about "For the Love of Fabric."

The workshops and lectures will be in Wayzata (at the same location used for the Roberta Horton series). The address and map will be in the October newsletter.

(CORRECTION!! You may register for BOTH workshops!) Please include a SASE with your registration to receive your supply list. It will speed up the confirmation process.

Contact either Sylvia Stroup (612) 476-0119 or Carol Wagner (612) 488-6286 if you have any questions. We hope you'll take advantage of these workshops and lectures.
