Evening Meeting
Thursday, August 6, 1992
7:00 p.m. - Machinists' Hall

Come join us August 6 for a meeting full of miniature delights. Shirley Krantz, a well known teacher and lecturer from Princeton, Minnesota will be joining us to share her quilts and insights on Miniatures. Many of you may remember Shirley's class at the Duluth show. In Shirley's honor, bring your miniatures for show and tell.

I will also be kicking off a miniature challenge. Small quilts are just perfect for those summer day when it's too hot to quilt on your larger pieces so, be sure to come join in the fun.

See nearly 50 of Shirley Krantz's miniature quilts on display at Rosemary's Quilt and Basket Shop, Braham, MN August 6 - 8, 1992. Viewing during business hours.

Sue Vento, Evening Director

Reminder:
If you won a door prize at the evening meeting in July, please bring a door prize to share with someone else at the August meeting. And for all those that didn't win, remember to sign the guest book when you come in (located conveniently near the coffee) to be eligible for a prize in August.

Daytime Meeting
Friday, August 7, 1992
9:30 a.m. - Machinists' Hall

Celebrate the hot month of August with a "cool" meeting featuring Sue Stein, great quilt designer who will share her wealth of talent with us. Her prolific creativity has accomplished over 100 pieces of wall art. "Blockbuster Sampler Quilt" will give us information on making samplers more exciting thru the use of different settings.

Please bring your class projects from Rochester to share. A placemat challenge will be presented plus a little surprise. Your Education Chairman is always open to suggestions.

Thought Patterns
I am filled with excitement as I sit here writing to you. Our first board meeting of the year has been successfully completed. Sue and Marian beautifully orchestrated their first two programs, and many exciting programs will follow.

Lecture Series will be expanding, servicing you more often with another month of workshops. Board members are learning to use the computer. We installed a new phone and answering machine, for the first time Minnesota Quilters will be listed in both metro area phone books.

Margaret and I recently purchased office furniture to accommodate the computer, library, historian, corresponding secretary, Quilt History Project and store supplies. My have we grown!

When I moved to Minnesota from Wisconsin eight years ago, I only knew four quilters in town. Having come from a very active quilting background, it was hard for me to sit and quilt alone. My four quilting friends were frequent travelers and not always in a steady quilt group. I was shy, unable to seek out a group myself. Curiosity took hold, pushing me hard enough to check out this M.Q. thing they kept talking about.

My first meeting was in the evening at the Richfield Community Center. There were 35-40 people all strangers, because of my shyness I sat in the back corner chair not talking to anyone. At the following morning meeting with approximately 125 people, I saw a familiar face. Gravitating to her and sheepishly saying "Hello". She promptly introduced me to 3 new people, I no longer felt so alone.

Today the evening meetings are averaging 250 people. At least 50 people I know by name, 100 people by face and I meet a new friend each month.

No longer in the back corner too shy to talk, I started as Evening Director Elect in 1989 hostessing with kitchen duty. As Evening Director in 1990 I found myself talking on stage introducing speakers, calling strangers on the phone to set up programs and attending many meetings. In 1991 president Elect position was once again in the kitchen. Now finally out of the kitchen, 1992s President finds herself answering phone calls, attending meetings with new faces, solving problems and delegating jobs. By talking to members and everyone that needs an ear, I am enjoying companionship.

Working on the board is my way of saying "Thank you M.Q. for being there when a shy young woman moved to town."

Minnesota Quilters was rather shy itself in the early years with few members, no permanent meeting hall, uncommitted to annual shows. I often wonder what the founders dreamed this organization would become. Without their foresight and determination this group of people would not be where it is today.

If our friends could see us now! A permanent home, single mailing address, published phone number, approximately 250 people at each meeting and 1200+ members. Our largest commitment to date are the annual shows, whose funds support many projects and programs throughout the state.

OHI! Our friend can see us, first Thursday and consecutive Friday of the month at Machinists' Hall.

See You There
Be Creative,
Helen Ziegler, President

Fall Lecture Series
Features Jennifer Amor

Although we are still in the middle of summer, we are busy with plans for the Fall Lecture Series, October 1, 2, and 3, 1993 which will be held at Wayzata Community Church. Our guest speaker and lecturer will be Jennifer Amor.

Jennifer is a well-known teacher and designer of wearable art and her teaching skills have put her on the faculties at the American Quilter's Society show in Paducah, Quilt Festival in Houston, and she has taught at guild and quilt conferences throughout the United States. In 1989 she was the Minnesota Quilter's annual show in Mankato, and we've had requests to invite her back to teach again.

Jennifer is known for her bargello techniques and wearable art. Her work has been published in Quilt Art '88 Engagement Calendar, Lady's Circle Patchwork Quilts, American Quilters, Threads and other publications and her garments have been in the Fairfield Fashion show and the American Quilter's Fashion show. She is the author of "Flavor Quilts for Kids to Make".

While she is here, Jennifer will give two lectures and two workshops. On Thursday evening, October 1, 7 pm, her lecture will be "Wearable Art?", a humorous slide lecture of wearable and NOT so wearable art, and she will also have a show and tell of her own work. On Friday, 10 am, October 2, her lecture is titled "On the Road Again," a funny slide trip to the world of quilts and quilt conferences with "time saving" hints NOBODY ever thought of before! (Hm-m, that does make one curious.)

All day Thursday and continuing Friday afternoon she will teach "Wearable Art" a workshop on how to adapt commercial patterns to create an original free-form garment and how to design a fabulous piece of clothing. She encourages students to break out of their grooves...let the creative juices flow! Workshop cost is $35 and there us a $1 supply fee to be paid in class.

On Saturday, her workshop is "Beyond Bargello," and you will learn to plan and make those wavy, undulating designs of flowing colors. Jennifer will lead you through all the steps to create four blocks toward a wallhanging. The class is for intermediate level or anyone who has experience in strip piecing. Cost is $25. The $1 supply fee will be paid in class.

All of the lectures and workshops will be held at the Wayzata Community Church and a map will be in the next newsletter. The Thursdays evening and Friday morning lecturers are open to all. Minnesota Quilter members must present their membership cards and they will be asked to pay $1 at the door. Non-members are requested to $2. The workshops are open to paid-up members of Minnesota Quilters only and your membership number must be included on your registration. This number appears on your membership card.

Registration will be taken by mail only after August 15, 1992. Checks should be made payable to Minnesota Quilters, but send to Laura Sahilberg, 834 Sherwood Ave., St. Paul, MN 55106, Phone 778-8065. Please write a separate check for each workshop. Non-registrations questions can be answered by Carol Wagner, (612) 448-6286.

Since quilts are planned for future issues, you must be able to work on a deadline. You'll see the results of your efforts published in our magazines or other publications!

Please send snapshot of a quilt you have sewn recently and request for more information to: Quilter's Newsletter Magazine, Attn: Caroline Reardon, Box 394, Wheat Ridge, CO 80034-0394.

MN Quilt Block Chosen for National Quilt

In August 1992 the 24th Triennial Conference of the International Federation of University Women will be held at Stanford University in Palo Alto, California. This conference hosted by the American Association of University Women (AAUW) will feature quilting as its theme because it is such a rich component of American History.

Romary Brabec of Braham, Minnesota has submitted an original quilt block which was chosen to represent Minnesota in a national quilt to be displayed at the international conference. Rosemary, a member of the Cambridge Area Branch of AAUW, describes the block as follows: "The design depicts the typical log cabin home built in East Central Minnesota. Also shown in the block are the pine tree and apple tree. White pine forests and lumbering brought settlers to our area, and the apple tree is a sign of the domestication brought by women."

Trip to Romania Planned

Once again, my friend Susan is planning a trip to Romania in September. If any of you would like to send a quilt for a child or an older person in a nursing home (lap size), please send them to: Rosemary Brabec, 103 W. Central Dr. Braham, MN 55006. Your donations have already made a difference.

Dear Helen:

I was thrilled to receive a letter from Andrea Gilats, Program Director of the Split Rock Arts Program informing me that I have been awarded a $330 scholarship from the Minnesota Quilters to attend Nancy Halpern’s class Pieced, Painted and Dyed: Color and Design in Quilting.

Minnesota Quilters has been a tremendous resource of information, inspiration and support, and even played a role in my decision to return to the University of Minnesota where I am pursuing a degree in Applied Design and Visual Communication. I would like to thank all of the members of Minnesota Quilters for this opportunity to attend Nancy Halpern’s workshop in August and hope I will be able share some of my experiences with you.

Sincerely,
Roxanne Garoute

“Food for Thought”
Offered at U of M Exhibition
July 12-October 18

A green moire corn cob dress with matching tassel headpiece and boll weevil earrings; a vending machine dispensing boxes labeled “serenity,” “passion” “consolation;” and “The Seven-Layer Salad Silk Scarf” are among the works featured in “Food for Thought,” a juried exhibition of undergraduate student work on display July 12 through October 18 at the University of Minnesota’s Goldstein Gallery.

This multi-media exhibition, representing more than 50 artists, presents visual interpretations of the theme of food, its abundance and scarcity. A foodshelf to benefit St. Paul's Second Harvest will be part of the exhibition; visitors to the exhibition are invited to bring donations of non-perishable food. The Gallery is part of Design, Housing and Apparel, in the University’s College of Human Ecology.

The librarian will send the tape as soon as it becomes available. MQ will pay postage one way and the member will be responsible for the return postage.

The normal check-out time will be ten days. When the tape is returned within the ten day limit, in good condition, the member’s check will be returned. If the tape is damaged or lost by the member, the check will be forwarded to the MQ treasurer for processing.

If the reservation is local and the mail is not used to deliver the tape, it is up to the renter to pick up and deliver the tape at the convenience of the librarian. Tapes will NOT be checked out at meetings like the books are.

The Video Library address: Jeanne Tanamachi, 1887 Pleasant St., Lauderdale, MN 55113. Phone: (612) 636-9894 (This is a Twin Cities number.)
