From the Day Director

The November program will include presentations from service oriented groups that may need the skills or resources that quilters have to offer. With sharing and needs in mind, please bring a NON-PERISHABLE FOOD ITEM to the November meeting and we will donate the collected goods to Minnesota Food Share. Besides this, Patricia Cox, Minnesota quilter and lecturer, has graciously agreed to give a short lecture about "Red and Green Quilts," which should get us onto the holiday spirit, colorwise. Pat always has interesting information and beautiful quilts to share and we thank her for her willingness to do so.

Now, a little information about the Holiday Party:
1. Send in your reservations! $5.00 gets you a lovely brunch at the Luther Seminary Dining Hall (in the Olson Campus Center, which is only 4 blocks away.)
2. Yes, you may attend even if you are not eating. Seating and coffee or tea will be available to all attending.
3. There will be a block and ornament exchange. Bags will be provided, but please be sure your name is attached (sticker or tie on) to your block(s) or ornament. See page 8 for info.
4. "Snow" challenge. Those who purchased challenge packets be sure to bring your entry. Prizes will be awarded, and remember, I know who you are!
5. Bring your Show and Tell.
6. Door Prizes will be given away.
7. The general timetable is:
   8:30-9:30: Social Hour. Coffee will be available. Drop off ornaments, blocks and challenge items.
   9:30-10:30: Food Service (buffet style). Wait staff will serve beverages.
   10:45-12:00: Block and ornament exchange, Challenge vote, Show & Tell and Door Prizes.

MINNESOTA QUILTERS IN THE NEWS

There is exciting news about several Minnesota Quilters members. At the Quilts at the Crossroads show in Flint, Michigan, Claudia Myers of Duluth had two quilts juried into that show, and won the award in the category Large Pieced—Traditional with her quilt "Tiger by the Tail." Claudia also won a ribbon in the category Best Use of Color—Innovative at PIQF for her quilt "Passion Flower." One of Claudia's quilts was also juried into the upcoming Houston show. Carolyn Peters of Woodbury also had a quilt juried into PIQF and two quilts at Quilts by the Crossroads.

MQ members will want to be on the lookout for the Quilt Art 2000 calendar, as it will feature quilts by Audrey Mead, Carolyn Peters, and Judy Timm. Congratulations to all for these accomplishments!

Raffle Quilt 1998

The winner of the 1998 Minnesota Quilters show raffle quilt was Patty Trygg of Maplewood. She is an assistant manager at the Minnesota Fabrics in Maplewood. The winning ticket was one of her own, so she also won the quilt tote for selling the winning ticket! In case you missed it, Patty wrote an excited thank you note that was published in the August newsletter.

Donna Halvorson sold the most tickets, 208. She won the remainder fabrics from the construction of the quilt, and was thrilled.

Get ready for the 1999 raffle quilt—maybe you will be the lucky winner this time.

How do I get to an MQ Meeting??
Machinists' Hall is at 1399 Eustis Street, St. Paul. From Highway 280 take Como Ave. exit. If coming from I-94, turn right at the bottom of the ramp. If coming from the north, turn right on Eustis Street. The Health Partners (was Group Health) building is on the right.
Library Lines

I'm going to say it: Where has the time gone? I can't believe it's almost time for the winter holidays already.

The October book amnesty was successful, but there are still many missing books. Please look for them in odd places. At the October meeting, someone said they had new shelves put in their sewing room. Behind the old shelves were half-a-dozen MQ magazines! It really can happen to anyone. Remember that books and magazines can be mailed, fourth class book rate, to the MQ library. Fines of $1 per item per month will be collected beginning at the November meetings.

Be sure to check the shelves when you stop by the library. We have many new books in the collection. Several books on primitive-style applique are not available, as well as a good variety of contemporary quilting and quilt art books. We are trying to get books written by all the teachers for the 1999 show.

Thank you for your requests for special books. I am trying to get them into the collection as quickly as possible. A few of you have requested the book on "back art" that was published about five years ago. It is out of print. Perhaps some MQ member has it in their collection, doesn't need it any more, and will graciously donate it to the MQ library. (Hint, hint, hint.)

Volunteers are always appreciated at both the evening & daytime meetings. The past few months have seen several new volunteers at the library. Please continue to volunteer. We always appreciate the effort. The hours volunteered at the MQ Library count towards the Volunteer Pin.

Three books and four magazines may be checked out until the next meeting at Machinists Hall. They cannot be renewed. If you are unable to return them at the next meeting, please mail them Fourth Class Book Rate to Minnesota Quilters, 1399 Eustis Street, St. Paul, MN 55108. This is YOUR library. If there is a book you want, please call me at (612)338-4360. A machine is waiting for your call.

NOTES FROM THE PRESIDENT

October lecture series, John Flynn, what a riot! I laughed so much my face hurt. I hope many of you had the opportunity to experience Mr. Flynn's lecture. If you didn't and you have the chance at a later date, please don't miss it as he is well worth your time. Many of the references he made hit home to David and I all too well as we are also a two quilter household and have had the "sewing room overgrowth" though we don't have the ten acres with the fence to contain it all.

As I write this I am preparing for the Fall Getaway in Little Falls. I've picked out my fabrics for the class I'm taking and made my block for the door prize drawing. I can't think of anywhere else I'd like to go this weekend; I find very little time in my schedule now for quilting or even just petting fabric! Time with good friends is always high on my list. I'm hoping to get my class project done and still have time to just kick back and forget about work and all those nasty things that keep nagging in the back of my mind that I still need to do before the snow flies. My flower beds need lots of attention (I just bought 50 or so new tulip and misc. bulbs that need to be planted before the ground freezes) I want the yard to look nice for GRADUATION in June--Yipes! The garage needs to be cleaned out, can't possibly get a car in it now. I have the old wallpaper off Mark's bedroom walls and the new waiting to go on. Like I said nag nag nag. Sometimes I wonder what comes over me that I let myself get in this position. Why don't I just QUILT!! Fall Getaway here I come, everything else just has to wait (but not too long).

See you in November, until then.....Quilt and Be Happy,
Jane Shattuck
MQ President

WANT TO PLAN 1999 FALL GET-AWAY ??
As I write this, the 1998 Fall Get-away is fast approaching. I'm sure that we're all grateful to Jenni Krosnowski and Carol Jacobson for doing such a fine job planning this year's retreat. I'm sure that everyone will have a great "quilty" time! As early as it may seem, it really isn't too early to think ahead to next year's retreat--we know that the time will fly by. It's one of my responsibilities, as Day Director-Elect, to make sure that the next year's retreat gets planned and is successful. The St. Francis Center, in Little Falls, Minnesota, the site for this year's retreat, is already booked for the October 1999 retreat.

I'm looking for a volunteer or a team of volunteers, who would like to plan next year's get-away. Volunteers like Jenni and Carol, MQ-ers, most likely retreat participants themselves. Planning the retreat would include: coordinating with the St. Francis Center, determining the teacher(s) and classes, communicating to MQ members at meetings prior to the Get-away, and dealing with the registrations as the retreat approaches. You wouldn't be starting from scratch. MQ has many past planners of this retreat, who I'm sure would be willing to share their experience and help in planning next year's!

Please contact me, Karen O'Brien, if you are interested in this fun and important volunteer opportunity! My home phone, work phone, and E-mail address are listed at the front of the newsletter, or you know that I'll be behind the kitchen counter on meeting days, urging the coffee pots on! (Brew!! Brew!!). Looking forward to hearing from you!

Quilt Groups Needed for Big Bee

The Minnesota Historical Society is extending "The Great Saturday Quilting Bee" for an additional twelve months. The one-year program, which opened with the Q is for Quilts exhibit in October of 1997 will extend to October of 1999.

We are looking for quilting groups--six to eight (or more!) members--to schedule for either a first or third Saturday of the month. We are encouraging large groups to bring everyone and "job share" those quilting chairs--giving everyone a chance to quilt and visit the exhibit galleries.

The quilters will be asked to demonstrate quilting in the setting of an old-fashioned quilting bee during a 9:30 to 3:00 shift in the Q is for Quilts exhibit at the Minnesota History Center in St. Paul.

For more information, or to schedule a Saturday of quilting, please call: Marsha Knitting at 651-296-1193, Monday through Friday, 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM.

Your quilt show or exhibit does NOT have to be MQ sponsored. The only requirement is that it be quilt related.

Shows and Competitions

"A Quilter's Gift To Children"

Proceeds from this competition will support medical research in the Department of Pediatrics at the University of Minnesota. Stitch and donate a 45" by 60" quilt that reflects the hope of a world with healthy children. This competition is sponsored by AQS, MQ, and the University Children's Foundation (UCF). Quilts may be appliqued or pieced, hand or machine quilted. All quilts must be received by the UCF between May 1 and 15, 1999. For more information, call the U at 612-625-1471 or Email benson@mailbox.mail.umn.edu.

"Coloring Our Worlds"

is a Textile Center of Minnesota exhibition to focus on works that have used dyes at some point in their creation. This is not limited to "surface design"; all techniques, such as basketry, quilting, felting, weaving, etc., will be accepted. Artists must be or become members of the Textile Center to enter. The due date for entries is November 16, 1998. For an entry form or more information, call the Textile Center at 651-917-7270.
The Kindest Cut of All
Lynna Martin Hastings©1998

As the 1998 MQ show has passed and the State Fair has come and gone, I find myself eagerly awaiting December’s MQ meeting? Why? Because of the Christmas Challenge, which along with eating, talking about quilts, eating, and seeing quilts with my friends, pretty much sounds to me like a very good time.

I always have so many "irons in the fire" that actually finishing a project is a challenge for me. My friends know this, and have encouraged me frequently to finish (this may be confused with what, in other circles, could be called pestering) whatever project I am currently working on. There is a Bible verse that links the word "friend" with the phrase "Iron sharpeneth iron," that makes me think right away of Joanne Holznicht.

Every month, she has a new block for us to sharpen our skills on. In my case, this includes time management skills. It is amazing that it takes me a whole month to make one block, but maybe that explains the range of fabric dates found in so many old sampler quilts. And thanks to Barb Pastman’s and Judi Smith’s color challenges, I now have a lot more yellows and oranges in my stash, and in my quilts, too.

In the Brooklyn Center Friendship Quilters group, Joanne is known for usually being the first one done with whatever project is going on. We always know that she will ask us about having our blocks for the monthly MQ drawing, or the basket blocks for the BC exchange. Mine are done! Now the trick is to not let them get lost in the pile of finished quilt tops (see how cleverly I used that work for my own projects?) Barb called quilt tops "first finished" quilts; "final finished" quilts are completed with binding. I am working on "finally finishing." And my friends are challenging me and keeping me sharp.

Is your Snow Challenge Christmas quilt "final finished" yet? Let’s be sharp, okay? I challenge us.

A Century of Quilts
Minnesota Quilters Show
June 10-13, 1999

1999 will be a great year to share the fruits of your talents with someone who loves your work and is willing to pay for it! Yes, the SMALL QUILT AUCTION will be special this time around, because you can make your Challenge Quilt and specify that it be donated to the SMALL QUILT AUCTION. I know, you're thinking, "Gee, I can kill two birds with one stone." You got the picture. The proceeds fund our support for public television programming in Minnesota regarding quilting education. Our rules are the same as the challenge: 40" per side maximum with a 160" perimeter. It needs a 4" sleeve on the top back and a label with your name and the name of the quilt on the back of your donated quilt, please. Use any technique and be risky!! Try unknown territory. Bed it, dye it or just string it up...(string piece, that is). After all, you only live once. I foresee that this coming year, we will have some of the most creative quilts ever seen in the auction before. Margaret Biwersi and I are cooking up some unique twists to entice you to participate, but that is still in the brewing stage. We will keep you posted as to our ever evolving extravaganza. Quilts can be dropped off at any Minnesota Quilters monthly meeting, or mail them to:

Quilt Angels

It's not too early to start thinking about being a "Quilt Angel" volunteer at the 1999 show. Our immediate needs are for 6 site co-chairs (2 for each site) and sub chairs for the following: set-up and take down, white gloves and lectures. Please contact either of the volunteer co-chairs, Bonnie Swanson, 612-792-0114 or Noclann Brown, 651-450-9119. You can also start signing up for your favorite volunteer area. Thanks!

Teacher Biographies

To what your interest, we are going to include a few teacher biographies in each newsletter. Find an old favorite, or look for someone who is new to you. All the teachers and their work will be featured at the January MQ meeting.

Joan Colvin
At times a painter, costume and commission clothing designer, and since 1988, creator of art quilts, Joan Colvin has shared her approach to art quilts in her two books. Her familiarity with sewing clothes and traditional quilt making, along with a background in painting and drawing, have come together in an approach to quilted fiber that is part painting, part collage. Joan has taught in the United States, Canada and Europe. Her quilts, many of them prize-winning, have been exhibited in solo, invitational and juried exhibitions.

Karen Combs
A native of Michigan, Karen Combs began quilting in 1973 while still in high school. She has a degree in library science and worked at many state, city and school libraries before finding her calling as a professional quilting instructor, writer and designer. Nominated for Teacher of the Year in 1995 by Professional Quilter Journal, Karen travels nationwide to teach her techniques and methods. Karen is known for taking a traditional pattern and giving it her own unique twist. She is intrigued with quilts of illusion and has been designing quilts with a 3-D look for several years. Check out Karen on Quilting From the Heartland, Series 700, and Simply Quilts, Show 411 and at her web site -- http://edge.edge.net/~kcombs/.

Sandra Dockstader
With a BS Degree from NDSU in Home Economics Education and a minor in Textiles and Clothing Fashion Design, Sandra Dockstader has an extensive background. From 1983 to 1985 Sandra was a community education crafts instructor and started teaching, designing and lecturing about quilting in 1987. Since 1993 she has owned her own stained glass quilt pattern design company. A six time winner of the Fairfield Block Contest, Sandra's quilts have been grand champion winners at the Rice and Dakota County Fairs and at the Baltimore Album Revival Quilt Contest. She has been juried into shows at AQs, IQA and Quilter's Heritage Convention. Known for imagination and attention to detail, Sandra's quilts and vests are awe-inspiring.

Ellen Anne Eddy
A Chicago resident, Ellen Anne Eddy acquired her first sewing machine as a teenager and began quilting at age 21. As a young adult, Ellen began having migraine headaches that kept her in bed with "wild dreams". She decided to make quilts of those images. Ellen has developed into a sought-after teacher who does lectures and seminars on what she calls "thread magic" making the best use of a sewing machine to create art. All of her own art work is done on a heavy-duty 930 Bernina sewing machine, creating wall tapestries and wearable art that defy the traditional concept of quilting. Using exquisite 20th Century colors and intricate patterns of machine stitchery, her work elevates quilting into fine art medium. Her favorite phrase is, "Let's see if we can break all the rules."
GET READY FOR THE DECEMBER HOLIDAYS WITH YOUR FRIENDS AT MINNESOTA QUILTERS!
